

an older brother Elli who was in the army & all kinds of things - I don't really know - but anyway he's always sorta been around here but he's very quiet & very aloof & withdrawn but this past week I really got to know him better & we had such great talks & nice times. He took me on some hikes & now I know how clumsy I am. I fell down tons of times - I'm just not used to this me climbing & I am pretty scratched up.
