

Hi - don't kill me ¹ but it has been quite last day into 100 - 100
wrote you a long letter right before all about my trip to Sinai etc. & I have it sitting right here next to me - ~~unmailed!~~ so I'll send it at the same time as this & you'll get it soon.

Pesach was very nice yet very sad at first. I guess it's sorta normal. But the 1st seder, Yussel & I were together here at Jove's It was really nice - very interesting & informative The discussed all kinds of different things - on all different age levels, from little Eli to real profound stuff. The seder took a long, long time but it was fun. Only different & of course I felt homesick. There were none of the jokes & form & kidding around & singing & looks about as much as you & Yiddish, etc. In fact there was not that much emphasis on singing. Of course I wasn't objective but it wasn't as bad as I thought. Second nite was sorta odd - I told you I had to find out from R. Anemer what to do - your whole tape you kept saying "I have to ask him" - "I have to call him" BUT YOU NEVER DID!
So I didn't get an answer in time (I had written to him) & I ask R. Horowitz what I should do. There is a very prevalent "way" for people like me who don't know whether to sleep one or two days. which is not doing work the second day but praying as if it were just chol hamoed - sort of a compromise I guess but that's what most people in my position do & that's what he advises me to do. So about 2nd seder, I didn't have to say the brochos (prayers) in it, but I could read it thru if I want & I did - Tovi Ari, & I sorta had my own little 2nd seder & it was lots of fun.

Many other very interesting things developed over 100. Very odd but interesting. Tovi has
